

TRAIL '83
New Providence High School
35 Pioneer Drive
New Providence, New Jersey

Volume 24

Lenora Palschakov has a new angle on typing.

If you were asked to think of a word that could effectively describe New Providence High School, what would it be? Sooner or later, depending upon how your particular mind works, you may think of the word class. Class affects life at N.P.H.S. in more ways than the obvious. Besides the eight classes on your schedule, your membership of the class of 1983 or 1984 or 1985 or 1986, and your class rank, there is another meaning of the word class. It is the feeling, the quality of class that is evident in everything at N.P.H.S. whether it be academic endeavors, athletics, art, music, community service, student council, or theater. You at N.P.H.S. have reason to be proud because, for better or for worse, you've got more than just a touch of class.

Nancy Alliston, Dena Borch, and Kelly Whitney enjoying the weather and each other's company.

Mitchell Frey, Debbie Marks, and Susanne Cordillo waiting for the bell to ring.

Jane Gregory, nonchalance herself.

Rod Siberine and data trip the light fantastic.

Joyce Kim caught in physics class.

Emma Jane McDonald hiding her time and her nails.

Tracey Reiher and Sheri Mitschelen practice for the half time show.

Robert Davenport sands his wood project.

Dave Dixon, Ali Palumbo, and Daeve Ross make up the successful Challenge team which Mr. Miller advises.

The Challenge team was extremely successful this year, due solely to the efforts of the team members. They competed with several schools, winning by huge margins. The team qualified for the semifinals.

Math Team

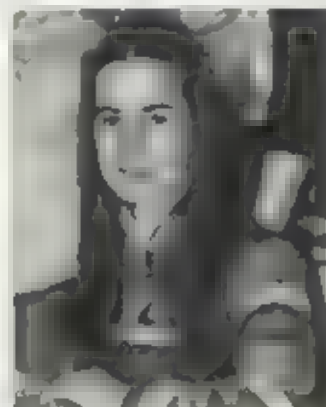

The math team was another new academic competition team that was formed this year. Similar to the Science League, each month the team members competed with students from various schools by taking written tests. The team was advised by Mrs. Kramer.

Someone, particularly Shakespeare, once wrote, "The play's the thing." Someone, particularly not Shakespeare, wrote, "The show must go on." Despite a change in directors and problems with the scenery in addition to all the usual hassles of putting a show together, the fall play "Harvey" finally made it to the N.P.H.S. stage. It was about Elwood P. Dowd and his invisible rabbit friend Harvey, who was also considered a pooka. The one question that is still being asked is "Who played Harvey?"

Ensembles

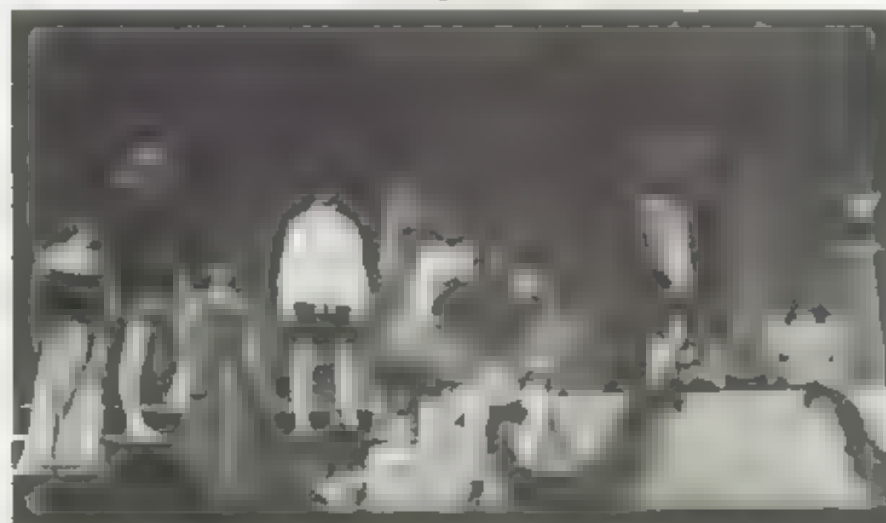

Once again the boys and girls ensembles decided to sing madrigals as their program while wearing costumes of medieval and renaissance dress. They wore their costumes to several concerts and competitions. When not wearing the costumes, the members were hard at work practicing with director Stephen Kramer. The members are Enid Chaban, Laura Chapla, James Christensen, Diana Conklin, Nomi Harris, John Hinman, Ken Iosso, Jeff Johnson, Pam King, Tim King, Caroline McCartie, Dana Miller, April Parker, Robert Sartorius, Christopher Sibilia, Holli Siegel, Elizabeth Smith, Gail Watson and Brad Wood.

All State Members Jeff Johnson, Julie Tiernan, and Laura Chaplin

Three students were chosen from N.P.H.S. this year to sing in the 1982 All State Choir. Jeff, Julie, and Laura had to compete with other students from all across the state. Once they got into the choir, they had to attend many rehearsals in order to prepare for their performance at the teachers' convention in Atlantic City.

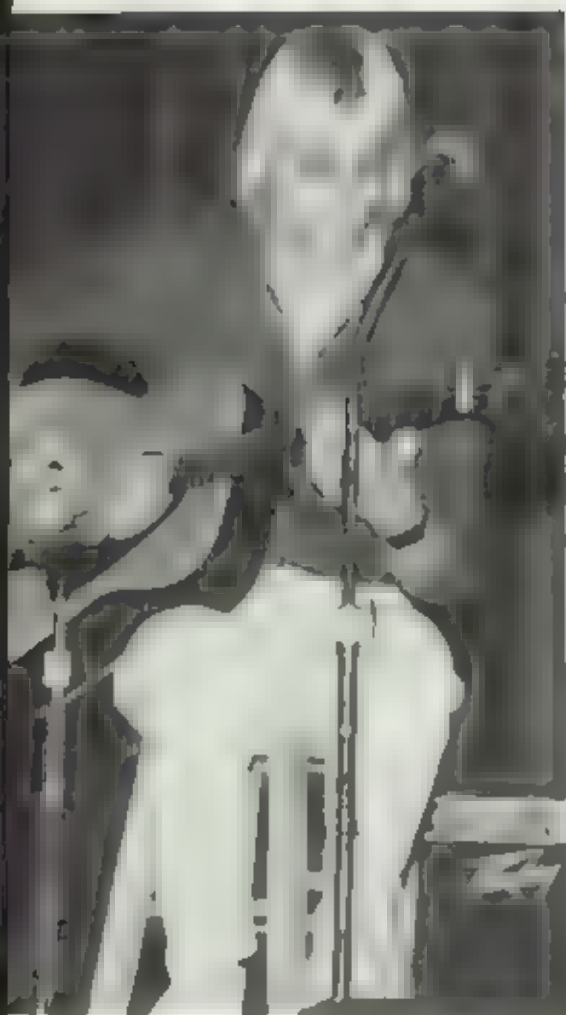

Presidential Classroom

Three of the participants were Alice Palumbo, Joyce Kim, and Neil Roth

The Presidential Classroom is a program which consists of a week of intensive study of the nation's government in Washington, D.C. Participants hear seminars on all aspects of government and see the sights of the capitol. Five participants were chosen on the basis of the results of the tests they took and the essays they wrote. They were Claude Iosso, Joyce Kim, Chris McDonald, Alice Palumbo, and Neil Roth.

PAVAS

PAVAS OFFICERS — Robin Dehmer, Jeff Johnson, Chris Sibila and Judy Schaffer

This year the Performing And Visual Arts Society had ninety- six members. In January we sponsored two trips into New York City. Members attended the opera "Hansel and Gretel" and enjoyed the performance of the Joffrey Ballet. Our main fund raiser was selling pretzels at football games. Advisor Mrs. Josefina Allocco opened many doors for us which otherwise would have remained closed. I would like to thank her, as well as wish all PAVAS members, present and future, successful years to come. — Robin Dehmer

Chess Club

The Chess club was very active this past year. Members competed in six tournaments throughout the year against other high schools in Lincoln County. These competing schools included Cranford Oratory, Elizabeth, Jonathan Dayton C.L., and Pingry.

Other members who came to the Thursday practices were Himanshu Gaudhik and Mark Hibi.

Student Council

One rule of thumb for success is that when you find something that works, you stick with it. This is true of the student council. Once again, this year the group sold candy canes, donating the money to the Leukemia Fund, and at Christmas, and carnations for Valentine's Day. The student council also had success in persuading the administration to allow people to go out to the practice field during their lunch periods.

"All the news that's fit to print" may not be the Providential's slogan, but its staff covers many topics, including controversial ones like the draft, student protests, and religion. Of course school events are reported as well as topics which interest the student body like rock music and open lunch, all of which is advised by Mr. Muller.

Trail

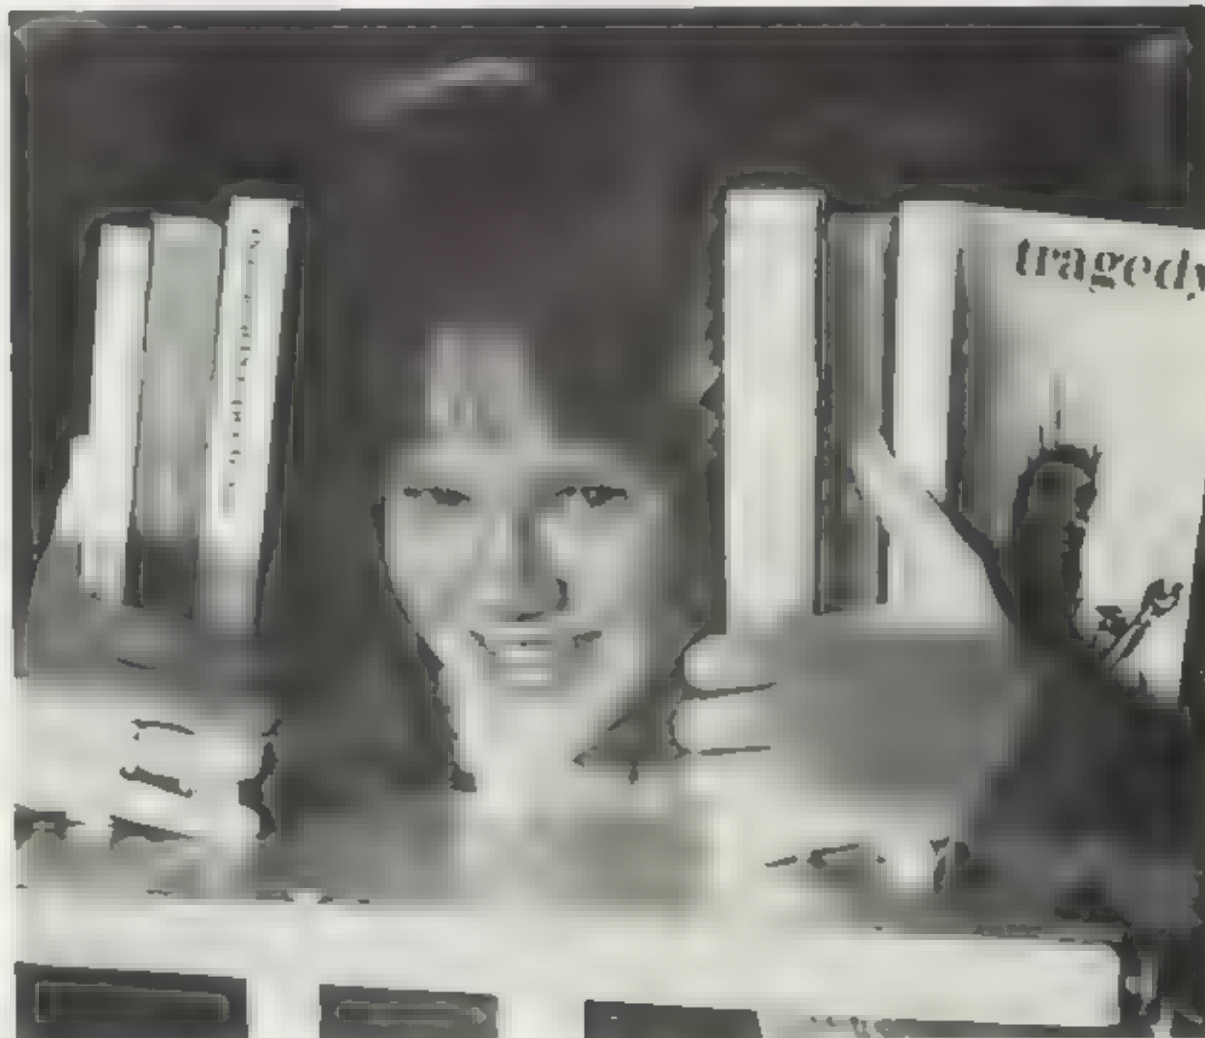

The magic words were "Have I got a job for you." We were told about the rewarding and fulfilling job of working on the Trail. With such persuasive talk, how could we possibly resist. Naturally we agreed. That was the first mistake. This year, the Trail was put together by a totally new staff with totally new advisors. Not knowing what we were doing was both a blessing and a curse. "It's so much fun" we were told, it's so much work we found out. Debts, deficits, and deadlines were major priorities. There were problems with money, problems with pictures, and problems with staffing. At times, the Trail could have been declared a disaster area. However, a great deal of work and creativity has been put into the 1983 Trail, and hopefully it shows. Someday it will be considered a labor of love, that is, once the labor pains subside. We have no one but ourselves, and that persuasive voice, to blame and to thank.

The New Providence Pioneer football team had a very fulfilling 1982 season. In addition to finishing their first year in the Mountain Valley Conference with an impressive 7-3 record, the Pioneers also finished the season ranked second in both the conference and the State Section II Group I division. These titles were lost to Middlesex and Glen Ridge respectively. Congratulations to seniors Steve Gebert and Dave Polisenu who were chosen for the all-state team and to the many team members who were chosen for other all-area teams.

This was a very successful year for the boys soccer team. Led by co-captains Jim Dean and Rick Duttonhofer, the team ended the season with a 10-6-1 record. This was quite a turnaround from last year. With this record the team qualified for the Union County Tournament and the State Tournament. In addition to a fine team performance, many players were picked to be on all-conference teams.

Look at FO

Once again the girls soccer team finished with an excellent record, 10-1. They placed 2nd in the county and seventh in the state. The team consisted of 21 talented players. 11 returning from Varsity. Strikers L. Snyder and K. Rogers led the team in scoring while B. Powers and C. Wood also had excellent stats. K. Tupper and M. Keane replaced K. Connell, who was injured. In defense, W. Brandt and L. Gillingham controlled the mid field. They were backed up by the aggressive fullbacks Flynn, Chauncey, Hallack and D. Bellolatto. A. Moletten backed up goalie M. Brandt who did an outstanding job. Good luck to next year's team in continuing a tradition of excellence in girls soccer.

Led by co-captains David Monize and Steve Nobbs, this year's wrestling squad had one of the best seasons ever. They were ranked number one in Union County and had a winning streak of thirteen wins, the longest in NP history. On an individual basis, Dave Monize was undefeated with a record of 21-0. In the district championships, seven of the Pioneer wrestlers placed among the top four. Dave Monize placed first, Peter Gonczlik placed second, John Uanis placed third, Rob Dumas placed fourth, and Carmen Torsiello placed fifth. In addition to these outstanding individual achievements, the squad gained the group 1 section 2 state title and went on to become the second ranked group 1 wrestling squad in the state. The Pioneer swim team, coached by Hank Buntin, had a fun and successful season this year. The members of the swim team are a group of dedicated swimmers. They practice early in the morning before school starts. This year, Jenny Loan set a record for the 100 yard freestyle in 1:11.2 seconds. This is a great achievement for the team. In 1978, a special note was made about this athletic feat.

The Boys Tennis team is competing in the Middlesex County Tournament with the Varsity Middlesex Boys Tennis team. The team is only returning seven players this season as a school player will be the best to place in the county. In fact, only one or less team members will be on the team a decided advantage for the future years. Best of luck to the boys and good luck to the staff.

Coached by Athletic Director Paul Miller, this year's baseball team is looking forward to a good season. Although it is a young team with only six returning seniors, the team appears strong with five returning starters: Barry Blackwell, Tom Cronin, John Liberato, Paul Queripel, and Jeff Tabors. Jerry Conroy will be pitching while two sophomores, Alan Niemela and Craig Colligan, are likely to start in the infield and Kerry Carroll will probably fill the remaining position. Good Luck to a fine group of players

Besides entering a new conference, this year's Softball team is also under the direction of a new coach, Skip Lyne. Coach Lyne is bringing with him much coaching experience and enthusiasm. He has previously coached JV girls basketball and JV baseball. This year's team has many returning Varsity players and is looking to improve last year's fine 18-9 record and continue the winning trend of this year's girls sports.

With a new coach, Art Cattano, and only three returning Varsity players, this year's Volleyball team is in a stage of rebuilding. Also, although the rest of the Pioneer sports teams have entered a new conference this year, the Volleyball team will not, due to the lack of teams in the Mountain-Valley Conference. Instead, the Pioneers will be facing area competition including two very tough teams: Millburn and Columbia.
